Dear Mrs. Manley:

According to the reports that I just received, last week you deducted the sum of $70 and change claiming that this money was due you by player Wells. Wells claims that there is no money due you and of course we knew nothing about it, when you first traded him to us. Would you please be good enough to enlighten me on this matter so that I may endeavor to straighten out the same. The season is fast coming to a close and I would like to adjust it.

Very truly yours,

W. A. Leuschner
